渋谷ストリーム

SHIBUYA STREAM

This is a large-scale complex utilizing the dead track site of the Toyoko Line, Shibuya Station. A pedestrian network was established on the south side of the Station, which was divided by Route 246. We worked on the regeneration of the Shibuya River through public-private partnerships, and development of the environment for creative workers. This project will create a new flow of next generation.